

Subject: History

Year Group: Year 3

Term: Summer 1

Main strands within this History unit

Government	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To understand the agricultural revolution and how this changed the farming industry in Britain• Understand the enclosure act and the effect this has on farming
Society	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The roles farming had in society• The impact on people farming had• The impact of Robert Bakewell's breeding techniques
Communication and trade	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• How farms used trade to expand their business• How farmers traded• What fair trade is and the impact on developing countries

Jerry Clay Academy
Subject Unit Overview

Subject: History

Year Group: Year 3

Term: Summer 1

Core Learning of This Unit:

- To develop awareness of changes to British History which have effected society today (farming/land use)
- To develop chronological knowledge surrounding British, local and world History
- To identify changes, contrasts and trends over time and identify similarities and difference between time eras.
- To construct informed responses that involve thoughtful selection and organisation of relevant Historical information.

Prior Learning:

- Children have started to develop their inquisitive skills to ask and answer questions about Historical events and significant people.
- Children have used a variety of different resources to find out information about Historical events and significant people.

National Curriculum Statements:

- To learn about a local History study in depth to identify how aspects of national history are reflected in and are significant in the locality today.

Key Vocabulary:

Agriculture- another word for farming

Agricultural Revolution- a big change in farming and technology

Rhubarb triangle- area in Wakefield where rhubarb was produced

Fair trade- trade between developing countries and developed countries

Arable farming- to have a systematic system to have a constant supply of produce

Pastoral farming – aimed at producing livestock

Local- an area close to us

Significant People

Robert Bakewell

Robert Bakewell was a British agriculturalist, now recognized as one of the most important figures in the British Agricultural Revolution. In addition to work in agronomy, Bakewell is particularly notable as the first to implement systematic selective breeding of livestock.